NEWS

To all IBSSA Members

1. Conference, Nov 2002

The US Army's 351st Civil Affairs Command will be hosting an International Organizations/Non-governmental Organizations (IO/NGO) conference in November 2002 at Monterey, California. Participants and invitees will be attending from numerous military, government, and private agencies worldwide in a forum to discuss civil-military cooperation during critical incidents, disaster relief, humanitarian assistance, counter-terrorism, and other such operations. One of the main discussion topics will be on the matter of Security. The use private security has been seen in areas such as Afganistan, the Balkans, Africa, South America, and other areas of conflict/unrest.

Members of IBSSA are invited to attend this conference, based on seat availability. More importantly, I am also looking for individuals as speakers to possibly present matters of general interest on this topic.

It would be a great favor to me if your organization would disseminate this email to your members. I would also appreciate an referrals that you may be able to provide.

For more information, please email the undersigned at TEFern@aol.com Thank you.

LTC Thomas Fernandez
Plans Officer, IO/NGO Section

5. Club meeting of IBSSA Hungarian Section

The Hungarian Section of IBSSA started its monthly club meeting on the 20th September in 2001. All active members are invited to this meeting, which is a good occasion to get to know each other better, to receive up-to-date information concerning training courses, shooting championships and other national and international events.

On the 10th January 2002, Dr. József BODA, Police Colonel – Director of International Law Enforcement Academy (ILEA) introduced and explained the structure of the Academy, which is operating out of Budapest, Hungary. A lot of insight was gained as to what happens within the Academy itself. In general it is offered to full time law enforcement personal, who have achieved a level of performance, which meets the criteria of entrance into the Academy. Since the time of its start, thousands of officers from around Europe have been trained and have graduated from the Academy. Dr. BODA went into great detail explaining the courses offered by the Academy, and the fact that more attention is being put on organised crime, drugs and money laundering. The academy has also focused on the anti-terrorist steps that law enforcement officers must be prepared to take including those that reflect both pro-active as well as reactive actions. The Colonel left time for questions and the attendees were swift to react by asking many questions. Sir George POPPER informed the attendees about the collaboration between IBSSA and the Academy (ILEA) and also between INEOA (International Narcotics Enforcement Officers Association) and IBSSA, as well as Narcotics Policy Department of IBSSA and the organisation, which represents INEOA and NPD known as C-N.I.S. (Center for Narcotics Information Support). He also stated that C-N.I.S. is in the process of opening its training headquarters in Hungary.

Every 3rd club meeting is a professional day as well, when IBSSA members or invited guests held lectures in security matters.

Such a day was the 8th November 2001, when HB No.2 Ltd. introduced itself and made a small show on its security clothes. Dr. Miklós VARGA – Member of Education and Qualification Department of IBSSA and Director of Folda Bodyguard Training Center – had also a lecture on “Devices for committing terrorist acts”, when he showed home-made explosives.

On the 7th February 2002, Mr. Zsolt ZÓLYOMI delivered an interesting lecture about terrorism on international level and Dr. Miklós VARGA informed the participants about last year’s training courses.

6. Announcement

It is a high recognition for IBSSA, that Dr. Levente GYENES – International Coordinator of IBSSA for Europe and Country Representative of IBSSA for Hungary was promoted to Vice President of the International Protocol Federation and President of the Federation for Europe on its Congress in Valencia. (Dr. Levente GYENES is the President of the Hungarian Protocol Federation and was awarded Doctoral Degree at PRO DEO University in Security and Protection Sciences – Protocol in Security Field.)
