Report on the visit of the Executive President of IBSSA to Lisbon 19 – 21 November 2001, Lisbon/Portugal

Sir George POPPER – Executive President of IBSSA was invited to the Executive Committee meeting of CIP-UIOF (International Projects Center – International Union of Family Organisations)* held in Lisbon/Portugal between 19 – 20 November 2001.

Her Excellency Maria Teresa Da Costa Macedo – President of the Executive Council warmly welcomed Mr. Popper and other new members.

The following members of IBSSA were appointed as new members to represent their country in CIP-UIOF:

- Dr. Giuseppe MORABITO G.C.K.M. from Italy
- Sir Constantin BUZATU from Romania
- Dr. Rony KLUGER K.M. from Israel
- Dr. Dace and Eriks GRINBERGS from Latvia

They introduced some new projects of their country for which international support is required for realization.

His Excellency Antonio GUTERRES Eng. – Prime Minister of Portugal received the leadership inclusive IBSSA Executive President for a formal meeting.

On behalf of IBSSA, Sir George POPPER offered the services of IBSSA International Organising Committee for all future events of CIP-UIOF independent of which country of the world they will be held. IBSSA also offered investigation and security services concerning the proposed new projects. The proposals were warmly welcomed.

During the meetings Sir George POPPER was introduced to Mr. Raymond E. KENDALL – Honorary General Secretary of Interpol to whom Dr. Popper gave brief information about the activities of IBSSA worldwide and cooperation with Law Enforcement organisations.

Ministers and high-ranking leaders of Angola, France, Portugal, Palestine and many other countries were present at this event. New representations of IBSSA in Angola, Brazil, Portugal, Vanuatu Island and some other countries were agreed with the present politicians and officials.

Special thanks to His Excellency Prof. Dr. José Manuel Costa Leca da Veiga COSMELLI G.C.K.M. – President of the permanent commission of CIP-UIOF and Honorary Member of IBSSA for preparing and organising those contacts.
