NEWS

Dear Friends, IBSSA members,

We are honoured to announce, that:

H.R.H. Prince Michael James Alexander Stewart of Albany

accepted the invitation to the position

Honorary President of IBSSA

The official nomination took place at Budapest / Hungary on the 4th March 2002 in the course of a Press Conference.

Sir George POPPER – Executive President of IBSSA presented the Honorary Membership Diploma and ID-card and Ambassador Abel de LACERDA BOTELHO – Honorary Member of IBSSA gave the IBSSA plaque to His Royal Highness.

We believe, that this is a very high honour and recognition for IBSSA as H.R.H. Prince Michael James Alexander Stewart of Albany is holding numerous positions. Just to mention some of them:

- Head of the Royal House of Stewart
- Seventh Count of Albany and heir apparent to the Scottish throne
- President of the European Council of Princes
- Knight of Grand Collar - Federation of Autonomous Priories of the Sovereign Order of St. John of Jerusalem, Knights of Malta
- Patron of International Society of Commission Officers of the British Commonwealth
- Patron and Protector of Imperial Order the Dragon

His Royal Highness is living in Edinburgh/Scotland. He is a well-known writer, historian and diplomat.

05. 03. 2002, Budapest
