Ladies and Gentlemen,

In the name of the organizing agency let me inform you about the Ball and about the details of application.

The guests are seated at round tables for 10. The entrance fee costs 80 Euro per person. This amount includes champagne for welcome drink, a 3 course dinner, Transylvanian cabbage offered at midnight, and during the night the waiters are at your disposal to serve you with beer, white and red wines, mineral water, and soft drinks. The event is planned to end at 2.00 AM, however if there is a need it can be prolonged with an hour.

We have a great offer for our guests from out of Budapest and for all those who wish to relax after the event in the hotel. The management of the hotel (for our suggestions) offers double rooms in the first floor for 110 Euro per night for all our guests. The price includes the taxes along with a breakfast for two. The guests can stay in the room till 2.00 PM, moreover breakfast can be consumed until 2.00 PM as well.

By the above mentioned offers our agency would like to prove that we were a good choice for organizing the Ball. We organize the programs, as well. For this occasion we have invited one of the most popular band called "Netti és a Hollander Zenekar". Those who have not heard about them: after the years 2000 and 2001 they will continue to entertain the audience of the Opera Ball next year too, just as well as the audiences of the Journalist and the Foreign Affairs Ball for the first time. The artists, that we are having talks with, will be a very pleasant surprise for our guests.
