IDPA European Championships 8 – 9 November 2003, Brescia / ITALY

We are very pleased to inform all IBSSA members that the International Defensive Pistol Association (IDPA) Europe – in accordance with Mr. Roberto AMADINI – Italian I.D.P.A. Area Coordinator – organised the IDPA EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH between 8 – 9 November 2003 at the Shooting Range in Mazzano (BRESCIA) / ITALY.

Because of the great number of applicants and short time only the first 150 shooters in order of inscription were allowed to participate; it was reserved only to registered IDPA shooters, classified Marksman or superior. During the Championships the contestants had to fulfil 10 stages, developed during one day of the weekend, with 150 rounds totals.

Mr. Roberto GOBBI (ITA) – Member of VIP Protection and Security Department of IBSSA and IBSSA Master Teacher also attended the event and became Vice European Champion, only for a handful of points in the Law Enforcement sector.
